REGISTRATIONLAW LIBRARY

There have been some changes made in Spring Registration. All first-year students must register on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 2 and 3. All upper-class students will register next week, Dec. 8, 9 or 10. These changes were made so some adjustments could be made in the previously announced Spring Schedule. The new schedule should be published this week so that you can plan what you want to take this Spring.

SPRING COURSE SURVEY

The results of the course survey upper-class students completed a few weeks ago have been posted. You can find them in the southeast corner of the Student Lounge near the National Lawyers Guild bulletin board. The results of the survey are being used by the Administration in making adjustments in the Spring Schedule.

GRADING OF FIRST YEAR CLASSES

At the request of the faculty, Prof. Walkover has prepared a comparative study of how other law schools approach the grading of multiple sections of the same first year course. The faculty and student Academic Standards Committees are discussing the report and possible policies for adoption at U.P.S. The S.B.A. has distributed a summary of the report and a proposed policy for student comment. Copies are posted in the first floor lounge, the fifth floor and on library reserve. Anyone with comments should submit them to Jim Richmonds by Wednesday, Dec. 3. The Committee meets Thursday, Dec. 4 at 11 a.m. in the S.B.A. office, and is open to interested students.

PARTY -- FRIDAY

Celebrate the end of the first semester. The S.B.A. and Moot Court Board will sponsor a party this Friday, Dec. 5 at 3:00 p.m. in the Student Lounge. The S.B.A. will supply the beer. Music will be supplied by some talented 3rd year students including Dan Mohs, Brian Elkington, Ron Hardesty and Rick Jones. Come join the fun before the 'big push' to finals.

ELKINGTON AND MOHS

Hot off the presses!!! Elkington and Mohs are releasing a 60 minute cassette recording that will be available Friday, Dec. 5 at the party. The price will be $7.50 a copy. If you can't attend the party, but want a copy, contact Jim Mrzak by putting a note in the M box or call 752-2653. He can also be reached at the Civil Clinic. This is a great Christmas idea.

CIVIL LAW CLINIC -- PREREGISTRATION

Information and pre-registration forms for the Civil Law Clinic may be picked up from the Clinic Administrative Secretary in Rm 326 and the Registrar's Office. Only third-year part-time students with 58 credit hours and full-time students with 60 credit hours through the Fall semester are eligible since Rule 9 representation of clients is involved.

An open meeting for all students to discuss the Civil Law Clinic and clinical practice opportunities generally will be held Tuesday, Dec. 2 at 12:00 noon in Rm 503.

LABOR LAW MOVIE

"Salt of the Earth," a labor law classic which involves the eternal confrontations between men and women, anglo and hispanic, company and union, will be shown Monday, Dec. 1 from 4 to 5:30 p.m. in Rm 504. Open to everyone.

STUDENT DIRECTORIES

This is the last P.R. for this semester. So here are some entertainment ideas to take you to January.

U.P.S. Madrigal Singers present "Program of Christmas Music" in five performances, Dec. 3 to Dec. 7. All at 8:00 p.m. in Jacobsen Recital Hall. It's free, but tickets are required. Call 756-3253.

"Scrooge" at Tacoma Little Theatre, Dec. 12, 13, 19 and 20 at 8:00 p.m. Matinees too. Call 272-2481.

"Nutcracker Ballet" presented by Ballet Tacoma at Wilson H.S., Dec. 19 - 23.
